Foreword EHF President

Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26 play-offs are here!

Dear handball fans,

After 14 rounds of group matches, the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26 has finally reached the knockout stage – and fans can now look forward to two weeks of close battles for the quarter-finals.

There is still so much of the competition to go, yet we have already witnessed so many brilliant performances on court week in, week out, all played out in front of you, our wonderful fans, who have created atmospheres worthy of the elite-level sport on show. I'm sure we will have the same again in the play-off round.

First up, we have two teams that know all about knockout handball; One Veszprém HC and Paris Saint-Germain will meet in a tie that in any other year could grace the LANXESS arena stage! Also in the play-offs are the Parisians' compatriots, HBC Nantes, who will face GOG of Denmark. Nantes have a great record of reaching the EHF FINAL4, but with plenty of experience, GOG will provide a very worthy challenge.

Industria Kielce will be aiming to avoid a second play-off exit in as many years when they meet OTP Bank - PICK Szeged who, with so many quarter-final appearances under their belts, have what it takes to overcome this challenge. Last but not least, Sporting Clube de Portugal face Orlen Wisła Płock. One of these sides will reach the last eight for just the second time, could that be a springboard for a debut at the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4?

The eight matches across the four ties are sure to create a breathtaking spectacle that will get more eyes on the Machineseeker EHF Champions League, whether that's in the arenas, on TV or online. Better media coverage allows the competition to grow and improve as a product for handball fans to enjoy.

The winners of the four ties will go on to face Füchse Berlin, Barça, Aalborg Håndbold and defending champions SC Magdeburg, respectively, in the quarter-finals. Then, we will be just one round away from the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2026, where spectators at this year's renewal in Cologne will enjoy every moment of drama in the battle for the prestigious trophy!

Until then, I wish good luck to all the teams ready to go head-to-head in the play-offs!

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
