TITLE SPONSOR OF THE EHF FINAL4

Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

We would like to extend the warmest of welcomes to you all to the Machineseeker EHF Champions League play-offs, taking place on 22/23 and 29/30 March 2023.

Thanks to the exciting format of the group phase, which is now in its third season, we have seen 14 rounds of incredible handball action, culminating in four clubs qualifying directly for the quarter-finals, and eight more reaching this stage, the play-offs.

Whatever happens in the play-offs, we are guaranteed to see some fascinating storylines play out; we not only have an all-Danish rivalry between Aalborg Håndbold and GOG to look forward to, but an exclusively Hungarian affair too between OTP Bank-PICK Szeged and Telekom Veszprém HC.

Our four other play-off participants take the number of nations represented at this stage to six – Germany, Poland, France and Romania as well as Denmark and Hungary. Orlen Wisla Plock welcome HBC Nantes for their first leg tie, while C.S. Dinamo Bucuresti and their supporters are sure to create a raucous atmosphere when four-time champions THW Kiel come to town.

Thanks to reigning champions Barça advancing directly to the quarter-finals, seven nations are still represented in the competition as a whole. They topped group B ahead of last year's beaten finalists Industria Kielce, while Paris Saint-Germain Handball and SC Magdeburg were the top two in group A.

Barça lie in wait for the winners of the Danish duel, while a trip to Kielce is the prize for the all-Hungarian tie victors. Either Plock or Nantes will move on to Magdeburg, meaning Paris will face the winners of Dinamo vs Kiel.

The winners of those ties will have achieved what many of these teams sought out to do back at the start of the campaign – reaching the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2023. The event will once again be played at the LANXESS arena in Cologne on 17 and 18 June, as we discover who will take the most coveted prize in club handball for 2023. Ticket information for what will surely be an amazing festival of handball can be found on the official website: ehfcl.eurohandball.com

We wish the very best of luck to the teams participating in the play-offs.

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
