High-profile play-offs pave the way to Cologne

16 teams and one goal. The Machineseecker EHF Champions League 2024/25 season started with a bang, as the best clubs across Europe were united by the same dream – to lift the prestigious trophy at the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 in Cologne. After an exhilarating group phase that tested the dedication and power of the teams in a series of spectacular matches, only 12 participants remained in the competition and the battles are about to become even more challenging.

The Road to Cologne is long, and while the four best clubs in the group phase booked a direct place in the quarter-finals – One Veszprém HC and Sporting CP from group A, Barça and Aalborg Håndbold from group B – the other eight have one extra step to take. With the play-offs in sight, Wednesday and Thursday nights promise to bring fans the best handball action, as the remaining quarter-final participants will be decided after the ties on 26/27 March and 2/3 April.

Polish sides Orlen Wisla Plock and Industria Kielce secured their play-off berths in the last moments, as sixth-placed in their respective groups. Former champions of the top-flight competition, Kielce will take on Füchse Berlin, a force not to be reckoned with as they count on Mathias Gidsen to lead them. Plock also have a difficult mission, being set to meet HBC Nantes, a club hungry to make it back to the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4.

A fiery clash between Dinamo Bucuresti and SC Magdeburg will decide who meets One Veszprém HC, while record winners Barça will welcome in the quarter-finals either Paris Saint-Germain Handball or OTP Bank - PICK Szeged.

As always, the fans will get a first-row seat for the show and the premium competition will be streamed live on EHFTV and will also benefit from extensive TV coverage. Exclusive match clips, highlights and important updates on our social media channels will ensure that the best action is easily available for everyone to watch.

Success is not guaranteed, as teams and players alike will get tested to see who deserves their place among the greats. The next stop on the Road to Cologne is the play-offs, so the question now is – which club will Dare to Rise?
