Four more captivating rounds await in 2025!

After a three-week break, the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26 makes an exciting return on 12 and 13 November with round 7 of the group phase. The race to the knockout phase is still wide open for all 16 elite club teams, who aim to finish this calendar year on a high.

The first six rounds have already set the stage for an enthralling 'Road to Cologne', with all to play for in both groups. Riding high on confidence, title holders SC Magdeburg and 2024/25 runners-up Füchse Berlin started their top-flight campaigns strongly and remain the only unbeaten clubs in this early phase of the competition.

Continuing their good form from the previous season and with the quarter-final spots in sight once again, Sporting Clube de Portugal are about to face their biggest challenge yet, welcoming leaders Berlin, including star player Mathias Gidsel, in round 7.

Climbing through the standings is certainly not an easy task with such a high-profile group A line-up, as Aalborg Håndbold stand confident in second place, while HBC Nantes, One Veszprém HC and Industria Kielce — currently in the middle of the pack — will try to make the most out of the upcoming games.

Over in group B, fans witnessed history repeating itself when SC Magdeburg snatched a one-goal victory over Barça, after the two powerhouses' captivating clash in the 2024/25 semi-final, also won narrowly by the eventual German title holders.

With an ace up their sleeve in newcomer Melvyn Richardson, Orlen Wisla Plock are a force to be reckoned with, having stolen points from tough contenders such as Paris Saint-Germain and OTP Bank - PICK Szeged. The French side has had a less-than-ideal start, with only two victories secured while trying to adapt to their new team formula — and they also aim to recover from the disappointing home loss against returnees GOG.

The remaining rounds will be crucial for Dinamo Bucuresti and HC Zagreb, who are still hunting their first points in 2025/26 and look to keep their hopes for the play-offs alive, alongside Kolstad Håndball and HC Eurofarm Pelister — both with just one victory on their accounts.

Wednesday and Thursday evenings are reserved for the elite men's clubs, and four more rounds will light up arenas across the continent in 2025, with the group phase action concluding in March 2026. Play-offs and quarter-finals will take place in the spring, followed by the TruckScout24 EHF FINAL4 2026 on 13/14 June 2026.

Enjoy the upcoming group phase clashes in the Machineseeker EHF Champions League 2025/26!
